Customs Procedures and Customs Declarations

Leading for results.
Learning for purpose.

Customs procedures and declarations are the set of managements and operations related to imports or exports of goods to and from the EU, as these are defined by the Union Customs Code (UCC).

The easy-to-use eLearning course Customs Procedures and Customs Declarations is based on the Union Customs Code and is produced by the European Commission Directorate General for Taxation and Customs (TAXUD) under the Customs 2020 Programme.

Scope

This eLearning course provides fundamental knowledge in the domain of customs procedures and customs declarations and the related procedures as defined by the Union Customs Code (UCC).

Audience

Customs professionals in the public and private sector dealing with customs declarations in the European Union.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this 75-minute course, you will have learned about:

- what a customs procedure is and the types of customs procedures;
- what a customs declaration is and how goods are declared;
- process flow of a standard customs declaration,
- which simplifications exist for a customs declaration;
- the possible ways in which a customs declaration is handled and the penalties that can be applied for non-compliance.

To benefit fully from the course and to achieve the learning outcomes, it is recommended to integrate it in your own training programme and develop a blended learning strategy.

Features

Before starting section 5 related to the specific simplifications for customs declaration, make sure you have well understood the basics (sections 2, 3 and 4).

You may interrupt your course. When reopening the course, you can resume where you left off. The completed sections are indicated in yellow in the menu.

A course summary of the most relevant information is made available in a printable format in the course library
